

MUST LIST

1

THE GOOD WIFE

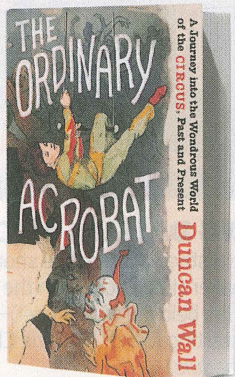

If you're lagging behind, now's the perfect time to catch up on all the reenergized drama at Lockhart/Gardner. Up next: a guest turn from Audra McDonald as Alicia's courtroom frenemy. (CBS, Sundays, 9 p.m.)

2 NO Nominated for the Best Foreign Language Film Oscar, this powerful drama was inspired by the true story of an ad campaign that swayed a vote against the Chilean dictator Pinochet. It's hitting more U.S. theaters throughout March. (Rated R)

3. THE ORDINARY ACROBAT, by Duncan Wall A true circus freak, big-top expert Wall studied everything from tumbling to the trapeze at a renowned French circus school and came out of it with an account that's part compelling history, part charming memoir.

4 "ENTERTAINMENT," Phoenix They're not kidding with that title. The French pop-rock quartet deliver a shimmering, infectious first single off their upcoming album Bankrupt! (out April 23).
