

LEGALLY HOT The Good Wife's Alicia Florrick and Cary Agos

They may be consorting in the courtroom—not the bedroom—but Alicia (Julianna Margulies) and Cary (Matt Czuchry) are still heating up Season 5 of CBS's smart, sexy legal series. The drama has been electric as the former adversaries have scorched earth by stealing clients from their onetime employer Lockhart & Gardner to finance their own new firm. "Cary has a bond with Alicia that he's never had before," says Czuchry (above center, with Ben Rappaport and Margulies). "They're finally on equal terms, and they're going into the unknown with each other." As the newbie partners worry about money, former bosses Will (Josh Charles) and Diane (Christine Baranski) vow to destroy them. "Cary and Alicia are bonded by the risk," Czuchry reveals. Will it last? The jury's out—but we hope they're sentenced to a lengthy term together.
