5 MINUTES WITH MATT CZUCHRY

Q&A brought to you by Zenith

HAILING FROM THE ERA OF AUDACIOUS AIRMEN, THE PILOT TYPE 20 GMT TIMEPIECE FEATURES SUPER-LEGIBLE ARABIC NUMERALS AND THE EXTREME PRECISION OF ZENITH'S ELITE 693 MOVEMENT. WITH ITS BLACK FACE AND CALFSKIN LEATHER STRAP, IT'S A SOLID MATCH FOR CZUCHRY. THE WELL-MANNERED TENNESSEAN, WHO PLAYS AN AMBITIOUS ATTORNEY ON CBS'S "THE GOOD WIFE," PREFERS ALL-AMERICAN STYLE WITH A TOUGH-GUY STREAK, FOR THAT EXTRA JOLT OF MOJO.

Is there a particular time of day that has special meaning to you?

Magic hour, that time right at sunset when it's incredibly beautiful no matter where you are. The light is softer and radiates in certain ways. It puts life into perspective.

What are four things every guy should have in his closet?

A badass leather jacket is essential. A pair of chunky boots that you go out in but kick around in the mud in, too. A perfectly fitted suit. And a great pair of Superhero underwear! I have a couple of these. No one sees it, but it's an ode to the personal self on the inside.

What's one thing you can't live without?

My music library. I've got more than 2,000 albums. I love creating playlists—for being on set, for a friend's wedding, even just going to the gym. Music really frames life experiences, and I love trying to get in touch emotionally with where I am through music.

What would you say was your one breakthrough moment?

I think breakthrough moments happen every day. You're always trying to grow, trying to learn, and move forward.
